“ We will miss Aunt Annie. After my husband, Craig, passed away a year after Uncle Wayne, Annie and I would talk on the phone and share our tears about our losses. Annie is together again with her beloved Wayne and her parents and brothers. Knowing that group, there is a grand old time going on in Heaven right now. To Annie, my dad Peter was the Alpha and she the Omega, the beginning and the end. Our thoughts are with Cindy, Mike, Annette, Jennifer, John, and all of the grandchildren. We know you will miss Annie, but know she is happy that she is reunited with the ones she loved and we all will see her again. Much love to all of you, Deb and Charlie

“ There r no words to explain how much I will miss my aunt ann. The summers I was able to spend with my cousins and aunt and uncle r priceless. She was relentless in teaching me how to say sandwich not sandmerch. Teaching us every summer something knew. Watching her and uncle wayne getting dressed up to go square dancing or going to play bingo like her mother did. She never called me Kathy is was always Kathryn. If u wanted to know anything about the past u could always call aunt ann for she had a memory like no one elses. Or if u needed a recipe she had it. There is another special angel in heaven now that has gone home to be with her mom and dad and brothers and to be with uncle wayne again. Everytime I would talk to her she ended the phone call or visit with I love u baby. So will end this with I love u too aunt ann!
