

Edith L. Alexander

September 16, 1917 - August 21, 2008

CENTERVILLE, Ind. – Edith L. Alexander, age 90, of Centerville, died Thursday, August 21, 2008, at Pinehurst CLC & Rehabilitation Center. She was born September 16, 1917, in Rogersville, Tenn., to Carl and Mona Lucas Cook and lived most of her life in this area. Edith retired in 1982 as a cutter at Nettle Creek Industries. She was a member of Centerville Christian Church. Survivors include her brothers, James Cook of Centerville and Donald Cook of Richmond; nieces and nephews, Terry Knece of Chillicothe, Ohio, Rose Ellen Garrett of Elizabethtown, Ky., Kathleen Gilmore of Pierceton, Ind., and John Cook of Centerville. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Herbert L. Alexander, whom she married February 1, 1940; Visitation for Edith L. Alexander will be from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, August 23, 2008, at Mills Funeral Home, 405 East Main St., Centerville. Funeral service will be at 1 p.m. with Pastor Stephen Abernathy officiating. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to Centerville Women's Cemetery Association, 407 Short St., Centerville, IN 47330. Condolences may be sent to the family via the guest book at www.doanmillsfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

WG

“ The Joy of the Lord is your strength. Family Unity What is it that the powers of darkness fear the most Next to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost ? Tis not the fiery preacher, nor the man who for god has trod. But a close and loving family that is unified by God. A family that shares everythiing and secrets too A family that puts God First in all the things they do. This unit is a fortress that cannot be o'erthrown For this building has God's only Son for its cornerstone. Here love and purity can grow - they have Faith for their earth And watered with God's Holy Grace unity gives birth To countless treasures, Gifts, and gems of priceless cost And as long as unity prevails no good thing can be lost. Death has endeavored to break this mighty bond By removing from our sight a dear one who has gone To be with the Lord Jesus, to dwell with Him above, But our unity has been strengthened with God's evergrowing love. The loved one is still with us, though we cannot see her face Nor hear her sweet and gentle voice, nor feel her kind embrace We see her in each thoughtful dead that other people do. We hear her in each loving word that's said by others too. We feel her in each loving touch that other people give And we see her life in everyone who for God only live We all await that glorious day when at last we will see God. And all thoes unified through Christ who have their course trod. By Kamin

William Gebhart - August 23, 2008 at 11:00 PM

CR

“ Condolences and sympathy. Edith was a lovely, caring peron. I was happy to call her my friend. -Carrol

Carrol McConaha Rhodes - August 23, 2008 at 10:03 AM

DJ

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. In-laws of Todd Alexander

David and Shirley Jenkins - August 22, 2008 at 07:04 PM

RH

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family during this difficult time.

Ron Smith and the staff of Mills Funeral Home - August 21, 2008 at 02:57 PM