

James E. Moore

September 25, 1933 - September 5, 2015

CENTERVILLE, Ind. – James E. Moore, age 81, of Centerville, died Saturday, September 5, 2015, at Ambassador Healthcare. Born September 25, 1933, in Bradshaw, Kentucky, to Willie and Bettie Moore, James lived most of his life in Centerville. He retired from Ford after many years of service. James was an ordained minister in the Evangelistic Gospel Ministry. He was an avid Kentucky Wildcats fan and loved bluegrass gospel music and the thrill of scaring people. Survivors include his daughter, Rose M. (Jeff) Thurman of Jacksonville, Florida; three sons, Alan E. (Danita) Moore of Richmond and Jamie W. (Marcie) Moore and Darin A. (Michelle) Moore, both of Centerville; nine grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; nieces; nephews; and many friends. He was preceded in death by his wife of 49 years, Mary Rose Hensley Moore, who died December 27, 2003; sisters, Virgie Browning, Hope Harris, Bonnie Rose Moore, and Emma Jean Moore; brothers, Edsel Moore, Johnny Moore, and Robert Moore. The family would like to thank Michelle Thacker and all the north hall staff of Ambassador Healthcare and Terry, Jerry, and Gary of Hospice Advantage for their compassion and the excellent care that was given James. Visitation for James E. Moore will be from 1 to 3:00 p.m. Thursday, September 10, 2015, at Mills Funeral Home, 405 East Main Street, Centerville. Funeral service will follow at 3:00 p.m. Thursday, September 10, 2015, at Mills Funeral Home with Chaplain Gary Kirchoff officiating. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to: Hospice Advantage, 3640 North Briarwood Lane, Suite 1, Muncie, IN 47304.

Condolences may be sent to the family via the guest book at www.doanmillsfuneralhome.com.

“ The pain of losing someone as important as a father can be overwhelming; I too know that pain. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more.' (Revelation 21:4) What a wonderful day that will be!
