

Jeanette Howe

December 2, 1935 - June 23, 2018

RICHMOND, Ind. – Jeanette Howe, age 82, of Richmond, Indiana, died Saturday, June 23, 2018, at Rosebud Village.

Born December 2, 1935, in Hamilton, Ohio, to Hampton “Hamp” and Ida Hamilton Eversole, Jeanette had lived in this community most of her life. She was the owner and operator of the former Howe Cleaning Service. Jeanette enjoyed cooking, decorating, arranging flowers, and spending time with her family and friends.

Survivors include her children, Marvin “Sonny” (Sheila) Howe, Jr. of Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Rita Moore, Lavonne “Bo” (Michael) French, Todd Howe, James “Jimmy” Howe, and Jack (Melissa) Howe, all of Richmond; 17 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; sisters, Bernice Shields and Jewel Lerman, both of Florida; brother, John (Mona) Eversole of Liberty, Indiana; nieces; nephews; cousins; and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband of more than 50 years, Marvin Howe, who died in 2011; parents; and sister, Betty McFarland.

The family would like to express their gratitude to Rita Donahue for the loving care she provided to Jeanette.

Private services for Jeanette Howe will be held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements are being handled by Doan & Mills Funeral Home, 790 National Road West, Richmond.

Condolences may be sent to the family via the guest book at www.doanmillsfuneralhome.com.

TA

“ My grandmother was such an amazing, strong woman. She taught me so many things growing up and there's not a day that will go by that she will not cross my mind. She was so loving, caring, and compassionate to all others. I love you grandma and I know that you will be with me every single day in heaven! ”

TS

“ Here is the deepest secret that nobody knows, the root of the root, the bud of the bud, and the sky of the sky of the tree called life; which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide, and this is the wonder that keeps the stars apart. I carry your heart my love, I carry it in my heart. ”
