“ So sorry to hear about your father. Your Dad and Mom were responsible for my twin boys to grow up to be fine young men. I loved being around your Dad, he was such a joy.

“ Rev. Eldon & Sharon Harzman
We fondly remember John from our relationship at Central UMC: many UM Men's Lent breakfasts; work at Rock Solid; several trips to 4-Corners Mission Center; fund raiser of selling nuts (which included sampling the "broken" bags). Remembering John includes Betty, being in their home watching Betty care for John, Betty making meals at Rock Solid and funeral meals at CUMC.

“ To Teresa, Steve, and Jeff,
Sorry to read of your Dad's passing. A fond memory is when the kids were all younger and we went camping at Old Man's Cave near Logan, Ohio. Elmer Wanda were there, too. We all had a great time. That was years ago! Hold the good memories in your heart!

“ Teresa, Steve and Julia, Jeff, and family, I am so sorry to hear of John's passing. I always remember fondly John and Betty and their kindness to me from the days at First United Methodist Church. Then after the Army I got to work with him at RP&L for a year or so before he retired. May God bless you and give you peace and strength as you come together.
