“ Tom, we are so sorry to hear of Mona's passing. She was one of the sweetest persons I have ever known. Her presence will surely be missed. Just saw a picture of her the other day on FaceBook at one of our gatherings at Minute Mart. Miss those times!

“ So sorry you have lost this sweet lady. You took such dear care of her.
Mona and I taught together at Highland Heights for a few years. When I got a call that my son had been in a serious accident in Georgia, she brought several teachers to my classroom to pray with me before I left to drive to Georgia. I will never forget how much her prayer encouraged me to trust God for the outcome. Thanks be to God, my son recovered and Mona's faith saw me through that difficult time.
God be with your family.
